From July to November each year, land crabs migrate to the seaside to lay their eggs. The Kenting National Park Administration started to close a section of Provincial Highway No. 26 to protect the crabs. Experts say that Kenting has the most kinds of land crabs on earth. Many organizations work hard to protect these crabs these years.

When the highway became a four-lane road, more crabs were killed. Many people drove too fast down the large, straight highway, and lots of crabs lost their lives. In response to declining numbers of crabs, the Kenting National Park Administration began closing the highway last year and saw that more crabs survived.

This year, the Kenting National Park Administration closes two of the lanes of the Provincial Highway No.26 for three days in each of three months, August, September and October. By reducing the number of lanes from four to two, it forces drivers to go more slowly and carefully. The dates are chosen at the time of the full moon in each of the months. In August and September, the two lanes are closed from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. In October, the two lanes are closed from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. when more crabs are migrating.

J.K. Rowling becomes one of the world's richest women because of her successful Harry Potter novels and movies. However, she lived a very different and sad life before her success.

Rowling was born in July, 1965, England. She didn't get along well with her father. So, in 1990, she went to Portugal to teach English after her mother died. She found love, got married, and had a baby girl, but she left her husband one year later because he hit her very often.

In 1993, Rowling came back home to stay with her sister. She was sad and felt like killing herself. But there were two bright points in her life then. One was her daughter, and the other was that she thought of an idea about a boy wizard named Harry Potter. She finished writing the rest of the story in coffee shops with her daughter sleeping beside her. 12 publishers turned her down, but later her book finally becomes the best-selling of all time.

Now, she's very rich, but she never forgets the bad times she had. She often donates money to help others. Many heroes around the world deserve our respect and surely Rowling is one of them.

Dear Wilhelm,

I found paradise! It's a small town called Wahlheim. The people are pleasant and lead simple lives. It's easy to focus on my artwork in this peaceful place. Best of all, I met the most wonderful woman at a dance last night! Her name is Lotte. She is not only beautiful, but also very intelligent. We spent all evening talking about our favorite authors. I want to spend the rest of my life with her. I know what you're thinking, Wilhelm. "Werther, you're too emotional." I can't help it. I'm in love!

Sincerely,
Werther

Dear Wilhelm,

Sorry for not writing sooner. I moved to Weimar to take a job in the court. I couldn't stay in Wahlheim because it made me too sad. I asked Lotte to marry me, but she said she is engaged to another man named Albert. I met him; he treats Lotte well, but he's too sensible! He doesn't share her passion for literature like I do. I thought moving to Weimar would be better. But I hate it here! Everyone is proud, and it's hard to make friends. I don't know what to do!

Sincerely,
Werther

Dear Wilhelm,

You must think I'm crazy! I returned to Wahlheim to ask Lotte to leave Albert. But instead, she broke my heart again and said we can only be friends. I tried to hide my pain from her, so I ran away. But I stole Albert's gun before I left. I would rather die than be miserable...

Dear Wilhelm,

I found Werther's letter to you. I must tell you about him. Albert and I found Werther near our house. He shot himself with Albert's gun. We tried to save him, but it was too late. We stayed by his side until the end. I'm sorry.

Sincerely,
Lotte
